

But not really.

There are lessons in this for everyone—surely, for Owens and his accuser, but also for team officials and school administrators. It's just unfortunate that this is how lessons are learned.

Owens led his team in rushing and passing and touchdowns last season. He took the Midshipmen to the Poinsettia Bowl, a 51-30 win over Colorado State. It was a great senior season, one most Navy fans won't soon forget.

Time will pass and Owens' place in school lore will be cemented. When that happens, it'd be nice if Owens is remembered for all that he did at the academy and not for something he didn't.

FREEDOM FOR FÉLIX GERARDO VEGA RUÍZ

HON. LINCOLN DIAZ-BALART

OF FLORIDA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 7, 2006

Mr. LINCOLN DIAZ-BALART of Florida. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to speak about Félix Gerardo Vega Ruíz, a political prisoner in totalitarian Cuba.

Mr. Vega Ruíz is a member of the Cuban Democratic Workers Union and the Pro Human Rights party. As a courageous member of the opposition, he has steadfastly demanded freedom, democracy, and human rights for the Cuban people. He has bravely denounced the cruel policies of the tyrant and demanded that the people of Cuba be allowed their inalienable rights.

According to The Assembly to Promote Civil Society, Mr. Vega Ruíz was arrested by the dictatorship in 2003 and, after a sham trial, thrown into the totalitarian gulag. According to multiple sources, Mr. Vega Ruíz was sentenced to 7 years in the gulag. Let me be very clear, Mr. Vega Ruíz has been incarcerated in the gulag for daring to dream of and to work on behalf of a democratic Cuba.

According to NetforCuba, Mr. Vega Ruíz has continued to oppose the tyrannical regime while locked in the gulag. He has conducted hunger strikes, including one that lasted 83 days and nearly killed him, to call attention to the horrific abuses of the dictatorship. He has also been stabbed while in the gulag. Let me say that again, Mr. Vega Ruíz has been stabbed while he languishes in the abhorrent gulag, and yet he continues to steadfastly oppose the gangster regime in Havana.

Mr. Vega Ruíz is a brilliant example of the heroism of the Cuban people. Mr. Vega Ruíz knows the violence, abuse, and repression that will be used to try to break him. Yet he stands strong in the strength of his conviction that the people of Cuba should be and will be free. Mr. Vega Ruíz is one of the many heroes of the Cuban democratic movement who are locked in the dungeons of the dictatorship for their beliefs. They are symbols of freedom and democracy who will always be remembered with respect and admiration when freedom reigns again in Cuba.

Mr. Speaker, this courageous man is locked in the tyrant's gulag for failing to keep silent about the nightmare that is the Castro regime. It is unacceptable that, while the world stands by in silence and acquiescence, pro democracy activists like Mr. Vega Ruíz are systematically tortured. My Colleagues, we must never forget those who are locked in gulags because of their desire for freedom for their countries. We must demand the immediate and unconditional release of Felix Gerardo Vega Ruíz and every prisoner of conscience in totalitarian Cuba.

RECOGNIZING NIKITA RODRIGUES FOR HER INSPIRING SPEECH

HON. HAROLD ROGERS

OF KENTUCKY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 7, 2006

Mr. ROGERS of Kentucky. Mr. Speaker, we need not worry about America's future if all our up and coming leaders believe in her as does a high school student in my District who delivered the following "Message for America" to an audience of young people.

Nikita Rodrigues lives in my hometown of Somerset, Kentucky and is an outstanding person, as you can tell.

"MY MESSAGE FOR AMERICA"

Ladies and Gentlemen, I speak to you today as a young American. Let that serve as sufficient warning that what I have to say contains equal proportions of young Hope and American Pride. These are the priceless ingredients of my Message for America, which is, "America: Be, all that you can be."

As a young American I am sick and tired of the naysayers that predict the end of the American dream. I am sick of reading about the differences between the red and the blue states and how those insurmountable differences will suffocate our future as Americans. I am sick of hearing about Americans being described as consumers, not producers. And I am sick of people taking pot shots at my country as being past her glory years. To all these naysayers, divisionists, and pessimists I have only one thing to say, "Your mistake lies in under-estimating the youth of America."

It was our past-President Bill Clinton who once said, "There is nothing wrong with America that cannot be cured by what is right with America"! America's most priceless asset lies not in her immense natural resources, not in her huge factories, not in her stores of gold, not her natural beauty nor her system of incredible highways. America's greatest assets still are the character of her people and the optimism of her youth.

We the youth of America must believe that we can make a difference. We must participate in the political process and hold our leaders accountable when partisan politics stymies our progress. If American high-schoolers are lagging behind the rest of the world, it is time to demand that our schools foster excellence and competitiveness rather than comfortable mediocrity. In the flat world of today, American youth must step up and compete. Yes, we are more diverse than we ever were, but that diversity can and must be our strength.

In his book, "What's so Great About America" Dinesh D'Souza had this to say about our country. "America is the greatest, freest and most decent society in existence. It is an oasis of goodness in a desert of cynicism and barbarism. This country, once an experiment unique in the world, is now the last best hope for the world."

That hope and responsibility rests firmly on our young American shoulders. We can either shrug it off or bear down and accept the daunting challenge to each do our part to make America—All That She Can Be!

TRIBUTE TO LEO SHERLOCK HOLMES

HON. ROBERT A. BRADY

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, September 7, 2006

Mr. BRADY of Pennsylvania. Mr. Speaker, I rise to honor the life, dedication and contributions of Mr. Leo Sherlock Holmes, who passed away on July 21, 2006.

Mr. Holmes served the U.S. Army as a member of the 99th Fighter Squadron of the Tuskegee Airmen during World War II, and in November 1965 he became the first African American to be elected to Chester City Council. Mr. Holmes served as an inspiration for many people. Because of his trail blazing, the impossible became possible and a reality.

Aside from his career on City Council, Mr. Holmes was also a City Treasurer, a math teacher at Frederick Douglass Junior High School, and a deacon at Bethany Baptist and, later, Calvary Baptist Church. It could never be said that Leo was not an active person. He loved people and lived under the motto that he would be a better person when he reached out to help others.

Mr. Holmes served as a Councilman for the City of Chester for 14 years. He then served as Personnel Director before retiring as City Treasurer on January 10, 1986. Believing and accepting that the people of Chester entrusted him in this position, Leo worked hard to address the issues and answer to the call of the people to the best of his ability. In September of 1990, Leo was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Chester Water Authority and served for 12 years before retiring due to increasing health problems.

Mr. Holmes was dedicated and devoted to the Masonic Order. His journey there started on December 3, 1955 until he his failing health forced him to leave his Masonic office in October of 1990. Upon his resignation the Grand Lodge unanimously voted that he be recognized as the Right Worshipful Grand Secretary Emeritus of the Most Worshipful Prince Hall Grand Lodge, Free and Accepted Masons of Pennsylvania.

Throughout his career, Mr. Holmes has led by example and we all have benefited from his leadership, intellect and integrity. Mr. Holmes' passing represents the loss of a powerful and committed voice, and it is for these reasons I ask that you and my other distinguished colleagues rise to honor him.
